AdvoCare Expands Scientific & Medical Advisory Board with Addition of Three Experts

(PLANO, Texas) – AdvoCare International, LP (AdvoCare), a premier health and wellness company, today announced the addition of three new medical experts to its Scientific & Medical Advisory Board: Bharat Aggarwal, Ph.D.; Gail Cresci, Ph.D., R.D., L.D.; and Jose M. Pimiento, M.D. Members of the board use their knowledge and experience in medicine, nutrition and science to ensure all AdvoCare products are formulated with the highest quality ingredients and are based on the latest scientific research.

“It is an honor to add such highly recognized experts to our board,” said Allison Levy, Vice President and Chief Legal Officer for AdvoCare. “Their profound knowledge of scientific and medical principles will help AdvoCare further fulfill its commitment to superior wellness, nutrition and performance. We are very excited to have them on our team.”

The three new Scientific & Medical Advisory Board members include:

- Bharat Aggarwal, Ph.D.
With more than 30 years of experience as a practicing physician, Bharat Aggarwal is an expert in cancer research, biochemistry and immunology, and is the chief of cytokine research in the department of experimental therapeutics at The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston.
- Gail Cresci, Ph.D., R.D., L.D.
Gail Cresci has more than 75 scientific and educational published works in nutrition and digestive diseases, and is an associate staff member in the gastroenterology and hepatology department for the Cleveland Clinic in Ohio.
- Jose M. Pimiento, M.D.
Jose Pimiento is an assistant professor at Morsani College of Medicine at the University of South Florida, and has written more than 30 scientific publications and book chapters in nutrition, surgery and surgical oncology.
